

15 July 2016

PRESS RELEASE

Hermes Airports stands by Its French partners

Following the terrorist attack that took place last night in Nice, France, Hermes Airports would like to express its most sincere consideration to the people of France and especially to its colleagues and partners of the French companies «Aéroport Nice Côte d 'Azur Chambre de Commerce et d 'Industrie», «Bouygues Bâtiment International» and «Egis Projects» shareholders in the Hermes consortium.

The Chairman of the Board of Hermes, Mr. Panayiotis Hadjipantelis, the Lifetime Honorary Chairman of Hermes, Mr. Nikos K. Shacolas, the members of the Board of Directors, the management and personnel of Hermes Airports express their deep sympathies for the terrorist attack and address their sincere condolences to the families of victims.

As the International Airports of the Republic of Cyprus, we condemn the brutal and inexcusable attack against innocent people and we stand in full solidarity with France and its people in these difficult times of suffering.